

GALL

FRAUD / ASSET TRACING

Our Fraud/Asset Tracing team regularly advises on domestic and international disputes arising from commercial fraud, asset misappropriation and business crime.

Our experience and expertise cover cases that involve:

- Obtaining Mareva/freezing Injunctions
- Appointment of Provisional Liquidators over corporate vehicles for fraud
- Directors' fraud and breach of fiduciary duties
- Cybercrime, internet scams, email hacking and online identity theft
- Investment scams and Ponzi schemes
- Worldwide asset recovery exercises in conjunction with overseas law firms in various different offshore jurisdictions

Senior Partner Nick Gall has extensive experience in dealing with multi-jurisdictional fraud and international asset tracing litigation. He also has extensive experience in forcing banks and financial institutions to provide information to assist in tracing and recovery of funds and fending off vulture funds in respect of international sovereign debt recoveries.

Executive Partner Chris Wong specialises in a broad range of corporate and commercial dispute work, including fraud and asset recovery. He acts for and against numerous mainland Chinese and foreign companies/individuals in their disputes. His experience relating to Fraud/Asset Tracing includes representing international banking corporations and companies in ex parte injunction applications in fraud and asset recovery actions and cybercrime matters.

Partner Evelyn Chan rejoined Gall in November 2017 and focuses her practice on complex civil litigation, with a particular focus on PRC related matters.

Partner Kenix Yuen specialises in cross-border commercial litigation and international arbitrations (in particular, involving element(s) of the People's Republic of China ("PRC")) covering contractual disputes, shareholders' disputes, directors' duties, fraud and asset tracing, misrepresentation and mis-selling claims.

Partner Nick Dealy handles a broad range of corporate and commercial disputes, employment disputes and contentious regulatory matters, often of a complex and multi-jurisdictional nature.

Recent cases include:

- Representing one of the largest publishing and financial information firms in the world in defending a claim by a former employee for alleged misrepresentation and conspiracy to defraud;
- Representing one of the most prominent business women in the PRC in a US$280 million dispute with one of the largest private equity firms in the world. The matter relates to claims for fraudulent misrepresentation, and involves arbitrations, injunction proceedings, contempt proceedings and proceedings in other jurisdictions;
- Representing international banking corporations and companies in ex parte injunction applications in fraud and asset recovery actions and cybercrime matters.
